parture several Northern States and PREMONITIONS THAT CAME TRUE the National House. He will fight them with grape and canister, will enfilade them with volleys of musketry and have a real live battle right from the Editor National Tribune: On Sept. 18. the situation.

down. Now Senators are bearing a hand toward passing a Senate bill for simply extending the mail subventions to ships of the second class, but are meeting with little else than discouragement.

The Democrats have brought forward to bill allowing a relate of five per cent.

The Democrats have brought forward about 10 miles. Then Johnson's Divining allowing a rebate of five per cent sion in McCook's Corps was detached to so to the left wing and assist Gen. Thomas to repel the rebel forces. We is an old proposition, formerly supported by some Republicans, one of them Senator Elkins, of Virginia. Many commercial treaties would have to be abrogated or modified before such a provision of law would be workable. Nevertight; the 77th Pa., on our left, and the theless at this time, the proposition of the proposition o theless at this time the proposition 79th III., close by, orders were given to looks more formidable, because it would make a charge on Pat Cleburne's Divisubventions to ships of the second class, in the same charge, and they got him admitted certain foreign ships to American registry and increased tonnage taxes. If the bill had been confined solely to mail subventions that would of two noble, brilliant men for the perprovide more ships to South America petuation of the Union, and to Australasia, many think it would That same night I v provide more ships to South America and to Australasia, many think it would have eventually passed the House and then could have been taken care of in the Senate.

That same night I was captured by the Johnnies, and I would have died in Andersonville, where so many of my best comrades died who were captured

The Senate bill for more mail sub-that same day. What happened on ventions is before the Senate Commit-tee on Post Offices and Post Roads, but member that we were on the Kelly at present there seems to be no disposi- Field, trying to repulse the rebel forces tion to report it. Senator Smoot, of the inland State of Utah, has a bill made the remark, in hearing distance providing for free ships, within certain of a number of comrades and Col. limitations, but most Republican Sen-ators are stoutly opposed to it. There are some committee jealousies regard-ing jurisdiction, and with the Humphrey

The Fight at Paducah.

J. M. Beckley, Tiffin, O., says that a the town at the mercy of the Confederates, who plundered it and the navy yard. They sent in a flag of truce, and gave us a half hour to surrender. Col. Bight here I want to say there is no opposition to you for Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. What I kick about is that you didn't get that honorable and high position long ago, but it's better late than never. And now, Comthe fort against orders, and formed a single line of battle with only about 250 makets. They charged into the town, and drove Forresi's cavalry out and across the clearing. The 72d Ohio heaving the const was in September, 1891, in Cleveland, O. Right here I want to say there is soon became a byword in our division. I was all thru the campaign from Corinth to Savannah, and I walked—I didn't ride. I marched four days with but one shoe, having erysipelas in my other ankle. I was on the skirmish line in front of Savannah with only one shoe, and we were the first or among the first to enter the city. I was in the battles at Corinth, Hamburg, Guntown, Chattanooga, Snake Creek Gap, Resamand drove Forresi's cavalry out and across the clearing. The 72d Ohio held line in the time it happened, and read the late. This expression is not became a byword in our division. I was all thru the campaign from Corinth to Savannah, and I walked—I didn't ride. I marched four days with but one shoe, having erysipelas in my other ankle. I was on the skirmish line in front of Savannah with only one shoe, and we were the first or among the first to enter the city. I was in the battles at Corinth, Hamburg, Chattanooga, Snake Creek Gap, Resamand, and saved the town. The next morning the coast was clear. Forrest had div the coast was clear. Forrest had dis- to reproduce the epithets he appeared and skipped out to Tennessee. Later a scrap was had with him on the Tallahatchie River.

Riding With Sheridan.

Winchester to get another one. I got a good horse, and, with about six Chat or seven other soldiers who were going Ala. to the front, got up early on the morning of the fight. We heard the booming of the guns. I looked down in Winchester and saw Gen. Sheridan. He was alone. When he rode up he said: "Mount, boys." I was about 18 years old and was delighted. I mounted at once, and rode up by his side and said: General, there is fighting up the road." "Yes," he said, "and we must get there as quickly as we can."

We hit the pike fast. I was determined to keep up with him or kill my horse, and I did, keeping close to him till we got to the line of battle.

As he rode along the line he had his hat off. I think it was about 10 o'clock. An officer asked me what I was doing there. I told him that I had come up with Gen. Sheridan. He told me to stay in the road and not let any but wounded pass. I watched the wounded ones as they passed till I got sick. I stayed there till dark. I learned that my regiment was on the left, so I mounted my horse and rode till I found The next morning I was told to report to Gen. Capehart's headquar-ters. He came out, and we rode to a big tent. Gen. Sheridan was standing at the tent. He took off his hat and told the General to come in. There was a big fire in the yard, and I looked at the captured stuff. There was a pile of Gen. Early's camp goods as big as a house and by it was the artillery. It was pointing up the Valley. I counted 66 pieces (six of them dismounted). I don't know how many pieces Early lost. We went into Winter quarters at Winchester, and this ended the cam-Co. D, 2d W. Va. Cav., Citie, W. Va. year 1864 .- A. T. Miller

The Lee Statue.

W. R. Wonez, 8th Ohio Cav., Princeton, Ind., says that the Lee statue incident has brought out the true spirit of the larger portion of the South. greatest object of Lee and the Confederates was to wreck the Union, and the South is proud of their record in this attempt, altho it failed. Lee was a ender in taking his State out of the Union, when he had been educated at the expense of the Government and lived off of the Public Treasury all his life, and to be placed beside Washington, the Father of His Country, is a shame and disgrace to every soldier who fought to save this Government.

At a regular muster of J. K. Taylor Post, Bethlehem, Pa., resolutions were adopted strongly opposing the erection of any statue, monument, tablet, insighis or memorial to any person who had fication or secession. Such an erection should not be permitted in the National Capitol or any Government office or structure or on any Federal reservation.

Supporting nullification by supporting nullification of secession. Such an erection was a man from another regiment of the National Tribune and the third was a man from another regiment of the National Tribune Col. Bidwell's Brigade, I think the 43d or 49th. I want to find out if that man of John McElroy for Commander-in-Chief for the next Commandergained distinction by supporting nulli-

G. K. Curtis, Red Bluff, Cal., waxes warm at the thought of the renegade having a statue in the National apitol dressed in Confederate un form. There would be just as good reasons putting Penedict Arnold there dressed in British uniform.

wery start up to the day the votes are counted. If the majority is with him, he will have won a greater victory than any of his predecessors in recent times valley of Death. That night the regi-He will be the Napoleon of ment, the 23th Ind., was ordered to go on picket. Perry Shumaker, from La-Ship Subsidy in Disfavor.

The advocates of ship subsidy in Senate and House are highly dissatisfied with the management of measures which were expected to result in some legislation at this session. They have failed to advance materially any one of nearly a half dozen ship subvention bills. The program to pass the Humphrey bill in the House has broken down. Now Senators are bearing a hand toward passing a Senate bill for a gigantic struggle on our hands to-propose a reduction in the tariff. The sion, and the charge was made. We reRepublicans are timid about forcing any kind of a subvention bill to the fore, less this Democratic plan be advanced as a substitute or amendment.

The older Senate advocates of subthey were both killed in the charge. sidies, like Senators Frye, of Maine, and Perry Shumaker, who had the battle Gallinger, of New Hampshire, deprecate flag, got a shot thru his left hand and the manner in which the Humphrey dropped the flag. I stuck to my banner, and was brought out, and then forced and Capt. Dunn picked up the flag, and to a favorable report by the House in a moment he had a rebel bullet thru Committee on Merchant Marine and his heart, and two comrades took him Fisherles. Several Republicans were to the rear, where he died in about 10 made mad who would otherwise have minutes. Our Capt. Cutler strolled off voted for the bill. It extended mail with the 32d Ind., under Gen. Willich.

bill moribund, if not already dead, there is great difficulty making any headway with any kind of ship-subsidy legislation.

In later buttle of Chickamauga lasted about 36 hours, but to a man up a tree, especially when it was his position to carry the flag and not disgrace the noble State. Morton, the feeling was like that of ried a gun. When discharged I wellington at Waterloo when he wished Sergeant-Major of the S1st Ohio. for night or Blucker."

Christian Seiler, Bremen, Ind.

A Christmas Dinner in '63.

Editor National Tribune: Christmas brings to my mind the one spent at Editor National Tribune: I belonged Corps had come from Vicksburg to to Capehart's Brigade at the time of the battle of Cedar Creek and later to Custer's Brigade. I had my horse killed the sat Lookout Mountain and Missiontles at Lookout Mountain and Missiona few days before the battle, and went ary Ridge, marched to the relief of Burnside at Knoxville, and back to Chattanooga and then to Scottsboro, There the Fourth Division went into Winter quarters. After arranging our camp for the Winter there were other things to do. Forage and corn to get for the mules, and to make hominy for the men (hominy was a companion and second only to the old white army bean). Just a few days before Christmas there was an order for the regiment to which the writer belonged and one other regiment of the division at that camp to go out with the regimental wagons and gather corn, of as the supply of Johnny cavalry was as the supply of Johnny cavalry was ter Geo. Phillips (now an officer in the about as plentiful as corn. Only the Police Department, New York City), turbulent Tennessee was between us and said: "Phill, do you hear that muand the enemy.

The wagons were loaded in due time, The Johnnies are coming sure." and no enemy had interfered. Every-said: "It is only picket firing. Don't thing on our side of the river surren-harness up until ordered." dered; even the fat geese followed us A few minutes later I saw Orderlies dered; even the fat geese followed us into camp, or at least two of them did. After considering the matter for some time, my ever-ready bunky and I thought it too much for two big, fat gooses to march seven or eight miles and wagon fall into the hands of the gooses to march seven or eight miles to camp, so we persuaded them to ride for the rear. At this time everything the matter of the rear. At this time everything the matter of the camp, so we persuaded them to ride for the rear. At this time everything the matter of the camp, so we persuaded them to ride for the rear. At this time everything the matter of the camp, so we persuaded them to ride for the rear. At this time everything the matter of the camp, so we persuaded them to ride for the rear. At this time everything the matter of the camp be placed on the minutes of this Command. on our company wagon. There was to be a great feast on that memorable Dec. 25, 1863. My bunky and I detailed ourselves a committee of two to prepare a sumptuous feast for our friends, gone about five miles. This was at 8 of which there were many. Two greens of the real than the release of the relation of the real than the relation of the relation of the relation. Finding the rebels getting the relation of the r of which there were many. Two geese, flour, soda, vinegar for sour milk, then been checked in their progress. W. something to bake the critters in. The surroundings were canvassed, and we headquarters and on the Winchester for baking bread in.

The pie crust was made by your humble servant, and the dough was relied out flat by using a big white ear of corn, which made it of beautiful design, the dents in the grains printing at to perfection. The oven was lined with the dough prepared for the crust.

Pulling up, he said: "Don't run, boys. I will plant you where you started from before night." He asked where Wright was and rode on. This was about 8:30 a.m. I got three of my mules, but the term of the crust. W. Walters Co. A. 172th N. When we want to be the crust. with the dough prepared for the crust, W. Walters, Co. A. 173th N. Y., Ninethen layers of goose and more dough, teenth Corps, Long Branch, N. J. scaped up the coals and waited, and a finer potple was never served than the one that day. But where are they that ate of that dinner? I am here, but do not know just where any of those that gathered around that board 46 years ago are Henry E. Hubbell, Co. F. 97th Ind., Second Brigade, Fourth Diision, Fifteenth Corps, Howard, Kan.

Bad Blood

of cures, is

Give 500 Absolutely FREE

who is deaf to feel entirely and gladly welcome to this gift.

For nearly a quarter of a century I've been studying and curing Deafness and my treatment, famous throughout the country for its success, is the result of an immense amount of study and scientific investigation. I am giving away these Deafness treatments free, at great expense to myself, because I believe at great expense to myself, because I believe among our comrades whose duty will the to preside over the destribute of it is my duty to use my large means as well as my knowledge to gid my fellowmen.

as my knowledge to aid my felloremen.

If you suffer from Deafness in any degree—if there is anything at all the matter with your hearing—if there are buzzing, ringing sounds in your head or ears—SEND AT ONCE FOR A FREE DEAFNESS TREAT—MENT. Write to me today and tell me about your trouble and let me do everything I can to help you get rid of your Deafness.

Don't let your Deafness run on any longer when such genuine and valuable help is yours just for the asking. Don't be discouraged if other treatments and other specialists have been unable to cure you. My freatment has done wonders in unst such cases, for it's difdone wonders in just such cases, for it's dif ferent from the others and the results are different. It gets at the REAL cause of the trouble when all the others fail.

Accept my offer today and start at once or the road to perfect hearing. Just send your name and address on a postal or write a letter, and I will forward you the FREE TREATMENT without delay. Address

Deafness Specialist Sproule, 4 Trade Building, Boston, Mass.

A Record to be Proud of.

Editor National Tribune: I belonged J. M. Beckley, Tiffin, O., says that a little scrap with Forrest at Paducah has never been written up. The 72d Ohio was returning from a veteran furlough from Fremont, O., to Memphis, when the report came that Forrest had massacred Fort Pillow, and was coming up the river to plunder Paducah. The regulation of the Southern Confederacy of the Paducah. Mr. Forrest made his appearance all right. Col. Hicks, of some Illinois regiment, had charge of the post, and drew all the troops into the little fort, leaving the landed two days afterwards in the keypoint of the Southern Confederacy, Chattanooga, Tenn. But don't for get that we were all glad at that time that Bragg and Longstreet captured us all in a bunch at Chickamauga.

Comrade McElroy, I only met you once personally in my lifetime, and that was in September, 1891, in Cleveland, and the navy of the Campaign from Ilucker."

What happened on the second day, Miss.; thru to Chattanooga and Look-out Mountain. We were the first of the infantry troops that passed thru Snake Creek Gap, and our brigade drove the man who helped Gen. Thomas and rescale the Army of the Comberland, which landed two days afterwards in the keypoint of the Southern Confederacy, Chattanooga, Tenn. But don't for green recruits sent to us there, and during the charge, as we were making a flank movement to the right, old Pete Ely ran up to our Captain and said: "Captain, listen. There won't be a man left to tell the tale." This expression once personally in my lifetime, and that the troops into the little fort, leaving the charge of the post, and drew all the troops into the little fort, leaving the charge of the post, and drew all the troops into the little fort. In the campaign from Ilucker."

Comrade McElroy, I only met you on became a byword in our division. I was all thru the campaign from Ilucker." started from Cairo, Ill.; was at Corinth,

Now, to make a long story short. I old age without grubbing or working on public work for their bread and butter. I was wounded at Parker's Crossroads, Ga., and am past 69, and only get a bare $12 a month for me

I am in favor of The National Terb une Bill, and hope it will pass. Where would find men now that would go down South and put themselves up for a target at $13 a month? Every man hat was at the front and served two years ought to get at least a dollar a day.—Charles W. Fogle, 81st Ohio, New Richmond, Wis.

Up Early at Cedar Creek.

Editor National Tribune: I was par ticularly interested in the letter of Mai Karr, of the 116th Ohio, in The Na ional Tribune of Oct. 14, on the arrival of Sheridan at Cedar Creek. I had which there was an abundant supply in the Tennessee River bottoms not far charge of his headquarters wagon. I had risen early that morning, and just away. Arriving at the big corn fields about daylight heard some firing which about daylight heard some firing which some eight or 10 miles away, it was the about daylight heard some firing which duty of some of the boys to help pick seemed a little too heavy for picket fir the corn and others to do picket duty, lng. I went to the tent of Wagon Massic? I am going to saddle my mules found an old black Aunt Hanna, who had one of these old-time brick ovens for baking bread in.

The pic crust was made by your The pic crust was made by your pulling up, he said: "Don't run, boys."

Who Was the Man?

Editor National Tribune: At the battle of Fisher's Hill Col. Bidwell's Brigade charged and captured the enemy's works. There were three mer credited with being the first over the There were three men works, and their names were read in the presence of the brigade at Harristhe presence of the brigade at Harris-burg, I think, where we stopped for two weeks after pursuing Early's forces to that point. One of these was I. F. Colahan, First Sergeant, Co. H. 122d N. Y.; a private, now dead, of Co. H. 122d N. Y., was another, and the third Capitol or any Government office or structure or on any Federal reservation or National cemetery. The wearing of any insignia of secession of the late tism, catarrh and other troubles. The Confederacy should be prohibited under a negative of demands of secession of the late tism, catarrh and other troubles. The greatest blood remedy for all these done with the brigade headquarters. done with the brigade headquarters papers. They are not to be found in At the regular meeting of Sedgwick the War Department. I would like to Post, 1, of Norwich, Conn., held on Jan. have the Buffalo G. A. R. Posts invest 21, it was unanimously voted to indorse tigate, and if any information can be the candidacy of Comrade John McConnection of the Company of Co

FOR COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

Grand Army Posts and Other Veteran Organizations Inderse John McElroy. The indorsements of Grand Army Posts have come in so rapidly that it has not been possible to keep within a month of publishing them. The deep sentiment and strong friendship expressed by the Posts in their indorsenents is deaply appreciated by the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., and Gen. Edwin Helbrook, Department Commander, desires to express the thanks of the Department thru The Cational Tribune:

Capt. James West Post, of Berea, Ky now the largest Post in the Departnt, altho its membership is much cattered. It has unanimously indersed he National Tribune pension bill, and ith the same unanimity indersed John ic Elroy for Commander-in-Chief.

W. T. Sherman Post, 146, Bloomingn, Department of Illinois, at a regular eting passed resolutions indorsing onrade McElroy for Commander-inhief, and recommended him to the elegates of this Department as a comide well fitted and qualified for the cition. The old veterans of the 16th Cav. here at Bloomington are for ing is troubling them in any way. I will these valuable treatments without a cent you heart and soul, and it afforded me of charge of any sort, and I want everyone great pleasure to be in a position to be to preside over the destinies of our organization as Commander-in-Chief for another year; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the comrades of Colo-ado Springs Post, 22, Department of Colorado and Wyoming, G. A. R., believing that the best interests of our noble organization demand that the position be filled by a comrade whose con-spicuous services in the war of the rerelative to that war and his personal and orphans; his fidelity to their best acquaintance with public men and public affairs fit him for that high honor. Resolved, That we believe that these qualities to their fullest extent are possessed by our comrade, John McElroy, of Kit Carson Post, 2, Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., and we take great pleasure in indorsing him for Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R., to rade of the next Annual Encampment, to meet at Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 19, 1910.

Also, we most heartily indorse The National Tribune pension bill as a just debt the country owes to them who fought four years for $13 a month, part of the time worth 35 cents on the dol-lar. By doing so they made this countraveled about as far as any that carried a gun. When discharged I was Sergeaut-Major of the Sist Oble country at large than any appropriation the Government makes, as the money goes into every village and post offic in the United States every three months and is put into circulation at once, with the suggestion that in arriving at the age of a veteran that the age given on the discharge be taken as proof of age. Unanimously adopted at a regular meeting of Colorado Springs Post, 22, Department of Colorado and Wyoming, held this 4th day of January, 1910. Geo. W. Custer, Commander; I. H. Burt, Adjutant.

De Lancey. At a regular meeting of Henry F. Wallace Post, 160, Bepartment of Michigan, G. A. R., held at Corunna, Jan. 15, during some discussion of the bers of Congress.—W. L. Palmer. ca, Kenesaw Mountain, Aliatoona pension question, Comrade Edgar Con-Mountain, Atlanta, Parker's Crossroads, ley, Sergeant-Major of the Post, asked pension question, Comrade Lugar Consider, Sergeant-Major of the Post, asked permission to read The National Tribune pension bill, which was granted. At the pension bill, which was granted. At the pension bill, which was granted at the pension below the pension bill, which was granted at the pension below the think the men that did all the march-ing and all the fighting certainly ought bill; also the candidacy of Comrade to have something to keep them in their John McElroy for the position of Na tional Commander of the G. A. R. at its next meeting, which motion was unanusly carried. G. W. Mattoon, Adjutant.

> A. G. Reed Post, 105, of Butler, Pa are unanimously in favor of you for National Commander.-John Emrick, 108 Wallula avenue, Butler, Pa.

Eggleston Post, 244, Department of Kansas, G. A. R., passed a resolution at their regular meeting indorsing the pen dollar a sion bill as set forth in The National Tribune, and it was also moved that we indorse Comrade John McElroy for next National Commander. The vote was unanimous, and the Adjutant natructed to notify the editor of our roceedings and also to ask our Repreould in making it a law. T. M. Dod-

At the regular meeting of Henry Harnden Command, Department of Wisconsin, Union Veterans' Union, Orunanimously passed indorsing John Mc-Elroy as Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. at the next National Encampment, to be held at Atlantic City, for the reason that we find that he ha been a most able and faithful worker ever trying to further the cause of the comvades who survived that war. We also indorse The National Tribune bill and the repeal of the widows' pension

Resolved, further, That you may be successful in the passage of The Na-tional Tribune pension bill, and that you be triumphantly elected our next National Commander. Albert F. Keene Colonel; Chauncey B. Taylor, Adjutant Charydon Post, 387, Department of Ohio, are all for you for National Commander next election.—Geo. E. Moore Sergeant, Hattery G. 1st Ohio L. A.

Whereas Comrade John McElroy, editor of The National Tribune, of Washington, D. C., has always been an acive and tireless worker for everything affecting, disectly pr. indirectly, the in-terests of the veterans of the civil war, and has proven himself worthy of any and all honors within their power to estow upon him; therefore

Resolved, That Mitchell Post, 45, Department of Ohio, G. A. R., instruct pur Delegates to present to the National Encampment of the said G. A. R., at the session of 1910, its hearty, emphatic and unanimous indorsement of the said Comrade John McElfoy for the exalted position of Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. B. G. Van Dyke, Jas. C. Walker, J. B. McConnell, Committee

Burnside Post, 47, G. A. R., of Au-

10 PENNIES LEAD 10 PEOPLE TO GET $32,000.00!

Amazing--Startling--Even Sensational--But True--Overwhelming Proof. -Women--Wake up! There's something coming to you. Strange Invention opens New, Gigantic Money making opportunity. At last! All barriers to your success wiped out--One Cent starts you, leads to handsome fortune, wage freedom, ownership--$3,000 to $10,000 yearly income.

STARTLING RESULTS: Over $2,000 in 2 Weeks; $1281. in 1 Month; $800 in 8 Days; $51.50 in 15 Minutes Proven by sworn statements. No wonder Lode wick sends this enthroller Foven by sworn statements. As women Asse-wick sends this entitusiantic message from Maine-"Its great! Money coming fast. How incky I answered your ad. 17 orders today." Hear the grand citerious news how 10 people like your-self earned over $32,000.00 simply because try-had exclusive solling rights on something every-body was longing, hoping, wishing for. Korstad (Minn. farmer) sold $2,212.13 in 2 weeks; Zimmerman (Ind. farmer) sees great opportunity—starts—succeeds—sells farm—result-orders $2,56.10 a.9 days. We shouldn't Cash-criters $2,56.10 a.9 days. All enclusive.

Sold exclusive.

Sold and longing, however, and the propertion of the person who can be sell it couldn't about the person who can be sell it couldn't about the person who can be sell it couldn't about the person who can be sell it couldn't about the person who can be sell it couldn't about the person who can be sell it couldn't about the person who can be sell bread in a familia. Sell as 1.685 in 3 years on particular in the person of the perso

Used by United States Government, Francisco Own a private enterprise paying 75% profit

THE ALLEN MFG. CO. 1835 Allen Bldg., Toledo, Ohio

Whereas the time is rapidly drawing near when the comrades of the G. A. R. must choose one of their number for Commander-in-Chief for another year, and recognizing the fact that Comrade John McElroy, Past Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief and editor of The National Tribune, the great palladium of the soldiers' rights, has ever been true and loyal to the best interests of the old soldlers of the civil war ever ready in the forefront of the battle with tongue and pen to do valiant work for the comrades, their widows interest is known and recognized thru-broad land; therefore, be it Resolved by the comrades of Burdick Post, 3, Department of Minnesota, G. A. R., at a regular meeting held in its Post room in Spring Valley, Chief of the G. A. R., and we pledge ourselves to use all honorable means to secure his election.

Resolved, That an authenticated copy of these resolutions be forwarded to Comrade John McElroy, Washington, D. C., and the same be spread on the minutes of this Post.

The above resolutions were carried by Burdick Post, 3, of Minnesota. G. W. Plummer Commander; G. W. Whit-

At a meeting of Wm. H. Reynolds Post, 36, of Utica, N. Y., held on Jan. 15, your candidacy for the position of Commander-in-Chief was unanimously indorsed, and it was ordered that the Post Adjutant communicate the same to you. M. F. Daly, Adjutant.

Watrous Post, 30, of Binghamton, N. Y., has adopted the following resolu-

Resolved. That in recognition of the long and faithful service of John Me-Elroy, that stanch friend of the boys At a regular meeting of J. B. Martin Post, 79, Pike, W. Va., in a motion offered by Jas. M. De Lancey, the candidacy of Comrade, John McElroy as Commander, in-Chief of the G. A. R. was unanimously adopted; also The National Tribune pension bill Jos. M.
National Tribune pension bill Jos. M.
National Tribune pension bill Jos. M. of '61 to '65, we cordially indorse his N. Y.; H. P. Fernald, Cheltenham, candidacy for Commander-in-Chief of England; George Murray, Chateaupension bill provides the "greatest good to the greatest number" of the boys in blue, their widows and orphans; there-National Tribune ponsion bill. Jas. M.

fore, be it Resolved, That we heartily indorse bill. C. E. Spencer, Senior Vice Com-Be it resolved by the members of R. McCook Post, 26, Department of California and Nevada, G. A. R., of Wat onville, Cal., that we fully indorse The National Tribune pension bill; that a copy hereof be forwarded to The National Tribune and to our representative in Congress, the Hon. J. C. Need-

Resolved, further, That we favor the election of Comrade McElroy, of Washington, D. C., as Commander-in-Chief at the next Annual Encampment. Albert Dickerman, Adjutant.

At the last regular meeting of Garfield Post, 8, of St. Paul, Minn., the members unanimously indorsed Com-rade John McElroy for Commanderin-Chief. Geo. R. White, Commander; Peter Plunges, Adjutant.

At a regular meeting of Byron L. Carr Post, 14, Department of Colorado and Wyoming, G. A. R., held on the above date, the following resolutions were passed by a unanimous rising

Whereas it should at all times be the chief aim of our representatives in Na-tional Encampments to elect to office the very best qualified and most deserv-ing members of the Order; and Whereas we notice with great pleas-are that Posts and individual Grand Army men from every section of the Brigade Bugler, Third Brigade, Second country are urging Comrade John Mc-Division, Fourth Corps, Aurora; E. E. Elroy, of Washington, D. C., to stand Kinne, Table Grove, Co. F, 84th HI.; for the election of Commander-in-Chief Spencer Wright, 916 First avenue, of our noble Order at the next National Rock Island; T. J. Langley, Taylorville; Encampment to be held at Atlantic City in September next, and realizing that Comrade McElroy, both as a member of the Order and as the editor of a great newspaper, The National Tribune, has been untiring in his efforts toward bettering the conditions of his comrades of the G. A. R. and of the Moweaqua; T. P. Bauman, 2734 N. veterans of the civil war: therefore lieving it to be the most just and equitable measure framed and urged for lersburg; A. R. Sharp, Sheldon; Roger passage by the National Congress. Brown, 513 Napoleon street, Rockford; Thomas E. Milhoon, Commander; J. S. Ira Beanblessom, Smithboro; Milton Paradis, Adjutant. Frickle, Co. F. 112th Ill., Atkinson; tional Tribune pension bill was in-dorsed. The Post also indorsed the candidacy of John McElroy for Com-mander-in-Chief. J. A. Moore, Adju-at a regular meeting unanimously in-dorsed John McElroy for the next Comdoing, all he can for the boys of '61 and '65. George W. Stone, Command-pr; John A. Watson, Adjutant.

At a regular meeting of Shreve Post, 203, Shreve, O., The National Tribune bill was unanimously adopted, and pre sented to the members in Congress with Hood's Sarsaparilla

Raye the Bullalo G. A. R. Posts investigate, and if any information can be the candidacy of Comrade John Mefor the passage of said bill. Comrade for the passage of said bill. Comrade for the passage of said bill. Comrade John Mcfor the passage of said bill. Comrade for the passage of said bill. Comrade John McFor the passage of said bill. Comrade John McFor was also indorsed for the passage of said bill. Comrade John McFor the passage of said bill. Comrade John McFor the passage of said bill. Comrade John McFor the passage of said bill. Commander for the memoers in Comprade John McFor the passage of said bill. Commander for the passage of said bill. Command

PERSONAL INDORSEMENTS

The Following Have So Indorsed John The following indorsements, arranged by Departments, were received previous to Jan. 20, 1910. Others will appear da. Cav.; Wm. Harvey, New Decatur.

Arkansas. E J Hicks Ree Branch, Co. I. 79th out the length and breadth of this Spellman, Lake Farm; J. E. Hendrickon, 110 Spring street, Eureka Springs.

Arizona,

W. H. Phillips, Temple, R. F. D. No. Co. D, 136th N. Y.; T. C. Blair, Co. E. 48th Iowa, Dos Cabezas, California.

J. J. Thompson, 3581 L street, San Diego; John C. Lyon, Arroyo Grande, 1st Iowa Cav.; Albert Baker, 1418½ 23d street, Saeramento; H. K. Elcher and H. E. Porter, Oroville, Butte Co.; Bernan Folett, 154 East 54th street Los Angeles; D. R. Butts, 335 West Third street, Long Beach; G. W. White, Colusa; J. C. Powell, 3820 Richmond street, San Diego; C. R. Staysman, R. F. D. 5, Santa Ana; Jesse W. McGahan, 211 West Sixth street, Long Beach; D F. Merritt, Dos Palos, V. of V. A., 1861 to 1865; George F. McDonald, South San Francisco; D. P. Demarest, Santa Cruz: O. T. Thomas, San Gabriel Frank W. Cushing, 13th Ill., Oakland; Willis C. Smith, 719 Bath street, Santa Barbara; L. T. Corder, Co. H, 61st Ill. Los Angeles; James H. Robbe, Co. F. 5th Ohio. Buckeye; C. H. McCausland, Co. A. 3d Minn., Sanoma; J. J. Thomp-son. San Diego; G. W. Hayden, Co. I, 16th Ill., 2114 Grant street, Berkley; A. A. Saunders, Lower Lake.

James Martin, Mannoaki, Co. B, 51st guay Basin.

Colorado.

J. W. Boles, Pagosa Springs; D. Brooke, Mesa; L. J. Mossman, Mancos; D. D. Wallace, Co. I, 161st Ohio, Gree T. S. Withnell, Stonington; Williamson, 107 Pearl street, Denver George Hanna, New Windsor; E. Chatfield, Co. B, 113th Ill., Littleton.

indorsed The National Tribune pension bill. C. E. Spencer, Senior Vice Com- Moosup, R. F. D. No. 1; Edgar E. King, Detroit; Eli K. Mauck, Hutchinson; Moosup, R. F. D. No. 1; Edgar E. King, Eastford; J. Nelson Brown, Collins-Delaware.

A. C. Mensch, Camden, First Lleu

tenant, Co. E. 132d Pa., and Captain, Co. E. 209th Pa.; John L. Lessley, Seaford; John W. Dyer, Cheswold; R. H. Williams, Marshallton; John Winright, Wilmington. Florida Orpha D. Bruce, 1302 Florida avenue, Tampa; M. T. Cutter, Winter Haven; J. M. De Tilla, Interlachen; A. chenck, Arcadia; Frederick P. er, R. F. D. 1, Magdalene; D. C. Allen, W. Robinson avenue, Orlando; L. H. Rowe, Mandarin. Georgia. W. B. McCarson, Dalton, Co. H. 7th

Tenn.; N. H. Hester, Fitzgerald; H. C. Weise, 604 West Oconee avenue, and 2. A. Oliver, Fitzgerald; R. A. Sipon, 157th and 54th N. Y., Savannah. Idaho. W. D. Hardevick, Co. A. 23d Mo., Nezperce; Charles E. Bradish, Orofin: Alex. J. Hofflinger, 397 Washington street, Boise; George F. Sower, Cald-well; Amos W. Melugin, Moscow; E. S.

Cushman, 811 11th avenue, Nampa; R. M. Barton, Moscow. Illinois.

C. H. Starkey, Co. I, 42d Ill., and comrades of the G. A. R. and of the veterans of the civil war; therefore, be it Resolved, That we, the members of the above-named Post, kereby pledge our warmest support to Comrade John McElroy, and urge all comrades of this Post who may attend the 1910 National Encampment to use all honorable R. W. Fulton, Savannah; Henry A. Button, Savannah means in their power to secure his elec-tion as Commander-in-Chief; and be it further

Resolved. That we heartily indorse
The National Tribune's pension bill, be-At a regular meeting of Belle Rive Ohio, Nora; A. Y. Barnard, Normal; P. Post, Department of Illinois, The National Tribune pension bill was in-Polo; Capt. R. W. Burt, Peoria; J. L. Ver, West, L. W. West, L Van Wert, 4326 Flornoy avenue, Chi-cago; F. D. Richardson, Newton; Alex C. Bay, Chicago; J. T. Buchanan, Greenville; Theodore F. Brown, Warren avenue, Chicago; Henry Shay, Co. G. 17th Ill., Berwyn; John Lukins, Greenview; L. Goheen. Jacksonville; Wm. Spenney, Martinsville.

Indiana.

Capt. J. Balsley, 471 S. Pine street, dianapolis; Warren J. Hazell, 413 N. Main street, Elkhart; W. H. Patterson Plainville; George Nester, 416 Harriet street, Evansville; George W. Selby, Petersburg, Co. I, 42d Ind.; S. J. Stowe, Angola; William A. Elam, Marshall; E. F. Felt, Frankton, Co. F, 16th Wis.; Angola; William A. Elam, Marshall; E. F. Felt, Frankton, Co. F. 16th Wis.; S. W. Turner, 506 North Monroe street, Hartford City; W. H. Cubberly, Lyons Station; John W. Williams, Arlington; John W. Williams, Arlington; John W. Miller, 1709 Woodlawn byen nue, Indianapolis; W. R. Dunn, Musician, 38th Ind., Cortland; Jeeph Silcian, 38th Ind., Cortland; Jeeph Silcian, 38th Ind., Cav., Greefftown, James

Karnes, Ridgeville; Richard J. Manring, Muncie; George L. Gegner, Ridge-ville; Dr. C. C. Clark, 220 East South street, South Bend; W. A. Skillen, Yorkton; E. P. Truesdell, Syracuse; J. B. Savage, Shoals; Henry Phelps, Carthage; Joseph Waish, Otterbein; C. o Jan. 20, 1910. Others will appear ater:

Alabama.

Peter Tidwell, Eldridge, Co. B. 1st la. Cav.; Wm. Harvey, New Decatur.

Grabill; Artemas Smith, Co. H. 136th Ill., Lincoln; John W. Simmons, 712 S. Third street, Goshen, Iowa.

Mrs. S. M. T. Evans, 408 South Market street, Oskaloosa; Jefferson Wheat, ket street, Oskaloosa; Jefferson Wheat, Winterset; L. C. Dorman, Co. G, Sth N,
Y., Perry; F. P. McReynolds, Wellman;
Harvey Reid, Maquoketa; J. H. Krell,
Winterset; Nathan G. Dye, Monisouth;
C. H. Dickey, Combridge; W. H. Van Buren, Sioux City; P. J. Wood, Blairstown, Co. K, 40th Iowa; J. W. Robinson Alegna; I. O. Lies Shelden, Lobintown, Co. K. 40th Iowa; J. W. Robinson, Algona; J. O. Lias, Sheldon; John F. Lacey, Oskaloosa; J. A. Kirkpairick, Grinnell; Martin Suter, Maurice; Ohio Knox, 156 Park avenue, Council Fluffs; Capt. F. McKinnie, Afton; Wm. McIntosh, Davis City; W. E. Benedict, Nodaway; Z. C. Burdick, Rockwell; R. S. Chichester, 51st and 53d Wis., Fourth Lowa District, J. M. Whealer, Chirach Iowa District; J. M. Wheeler, Clinton; A. W. Ryan, Fairfield; J. J. Bonder, Sergeant, 14th Iowa, Olin; L. T. Deaver, 506 N. Elm street, Creston; S. A. Joose, Co. A. 23d Iowa, Pleasantville; B. Yohn, Princeton; R. France, Eagle Grove; Frank McGregin, Tingley; Wm. T. Reeve, 916 Virginia street, Sioux City; M. McDonald, Bayard; J. E. Hougland, Eldon; Robert A. Snear-er, Lewis; H. W. Sigworth, Anamosa.

Kansas.

M. V. Ford, 422 West Fourth street, M. V. Ford, 422 West Fourth street, Newton; Dan Luke, drummer boy, 100th Regiment, First Brigade, Third Division, Army Corps, Parsons; J. G. Hambleton, Sycamore; William A. Og-den, Ness City; M. Handford, Co. H. 14th Kan. Cav., Eureka; J. W. Homer, Co. C. Sett. Co. C, 69th Ohio, Louisville; W. L. Riley, Eldorado; A. M. Whitehead, Mankato; J. W. Benjamin, Co. K, 27th Ill., Kincaid; A. A. Rand, Marysville; W. P. Anderson, Brownell; George M. Smith, 215 Third avenue, Leavenworth; James M. Bryan, Sedan; Joseph Huy. James M. Bryan, Sedan; Joseph Huy ler, Co. A. 1st Mo., Clayton; Kenneth Newton, Harper; R. C. Young, Co. G. 46th Ill., Manhattan; M. V. Barron, National Military Home, Kan.; Daniel Burkett, Ashland; T. J. Anderson, To-peka; J. S. McDewell, Captain, Co. F. 77th Pa., Smith Center; William Lee. Geo. W. Finlay, 307 North Second street, Independence; S. E. Burger, 701 comis street, Winfield; L. W. Axton Harper; W. D. Peters, Chase; Wm-Hemphill, Co. C. 82d Ind., Broughton,

Good News for the Deaf.

A celebrated New York aurist has selected to demonstrate to deaf people that deafness is a disease and can be cured rapidly and easily in your He proposes to prove this fact by sending to any person having trouble with their ears a trial treatment of this new method absolutely free. We adtheir ears to immediately address Dr Edward Gardner, Suite 312, No. 40 West Thirty-third street, New York City, and we wish to assure them that they receive by return mail, absolutely free, a "Trial Treatment."

The 108th N. Y. Editor National Tribune: Can you inorm me what became of the 108th N. Y. after the battle of Antictam? I cannot find any record of them in the paper or elsewhere. I was shot in the right leg and in the left elbow at Antietam, and I cannot get my hand to my face to-day. I have to have my children help dress me and tie my neck-tie.-J. C. Watterson, Boyen City, Mich. The 108th N. Y. was a Rochester regiment, and after Antietam took part in the battles of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Auburn, Bris-toe Station, Mine Run, the Wilderness, Spotsylvania and all the subsequent engagements until Appomattox. It was in the Second Division, Second Corps, and mustered out May 28, 1865, under I. Powers. It lost 115 killed and 205 rom disease and other causes.-Editor National Tribune

For Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief. Ulrich Dahlgren Post, Elizabeth, N. unanimously nominates for Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief Past Department Commander Alfred Atkins, of Roselle Park, N. J., and a committee of five was appointed to secure the in-dorsement of this nomination by the representative to the Department En-communication Between the Comrades, J. T. Hudson, Spring Hill, W. Va., cannot express his appreciation of The National Tribune. It is the only paper n which the veterans can communicate nd tell their experiences in actual war with all its exciting scenes. He cannot understand how this great Government can claim justice when it refuses pen-sions to widows who have nursed their nds for years and stood by their

Sheridan at Cedar Creek.

deathbeds at death.

C. S. Barrett, 8th Vt., Titusville, Pa. says that the larger part of his regiment was on picket the night before the bat-tle and cut off from our lines. They did not succeed in reaching our colors un-til between 10 and 11 o'clock, and it was not later than 11 o'clock when we saw Sheridan, and he had been on the field some time then.

NOTICE TO OUR READERS.